

Healthcare

Achieva Resources provides resources which assist individuals with disabilities in “achieving greater personal, social, and economic success.”

Adult Day Care of Richmond offers a structured program that provides a variety of social programming and health support in a protective setting during the daytime hours for impaired adults.

Amada Senior Care provides personalized and compassionate senior care and assistance with the activities of daily living. Or if in-home care is not an option, assists with finding appropriate assisted living facilities and provides information on the financial options available for affordable senior living.

Lifestream Services (formerly Area 9 Agency) is a local non-profit outreach organization provides a variety of services which is positioned as “your one-stop Aging and Disability resource.”

Centerstone, a private, non-profit community mental health organization, offers a full range of mental health services for children, adolescents, families and adults.

Meridian Services is a progressive healthcare organization that believes in treating the “whole person” integrating physical, mental and social well-being to help people achieve their optimum health. This approach connects treatments and doctors working together to heal both the body and mind for total well-being. Meridian’s spectrum of services includes medical and behavioral health as well as programs focused on independent living support, job skills training, foster care for special needs children, and counseling and support services for victims of child abuse.

Recovery Works Cambridge City provides a continuum of care for individuals facing the challenge of addiction. Services include outpatient, residential, and sober living transitional environments. Part of the multistate Pinnacle Treatment Centers family.

Reid Health is a nonprofit, 223-bed regional referral medical center serving East Central Indiana and West Central Ohio providing healthcare services to over 280,000 people. With over 2,500 employees, Reid Health is Wayne County’s largest employer. The attractive 100 acre campus is easily accessible from U.S. 27, less than a half mile from Interstate 70. Reid is accredited by the Healthcare Facilities Accreditation Program (HFAP), the Indiana State Department of Health, Medicare/Medicaid, American Association of Blood Banks and the American College of Surgeons Community Cancer Program. Reid was recently awarded the Baby-Friendly designation by Baby-Friendly USA after meeting rigorous standards. It consistently ranks near the top of governmental, professional, and consumer quality surveys. Reid is guided by a mission of treating patients in mind, body, and spirit.

Reid Rehabilitation Services offers a comprehensive and interdisciplinary rehabilitation program assisting individuals of all ages ranging from injury recovery to speech therapy and child development assistance.

Richmond State Hospital is a public behavioral health facility operated by the State of Indiana which provides psychiatric and chemical dependency treatment to citizens on a state wide basis, serving adolescent, adult, and geriatric population groups.

The Springs of Richmond provides private suites, skilled nursing and comprehensive rehabilitation services including physical, occupational, and speech therapies as well as infusion therapy, cardiac recovery, post-surgical recovery and complex medical management to assist patients in reaching optimal levels of recovery and function.

Wayne County Community Health Center provides quality affordable care to residents of Richmond and the surrounding area. The health center is designated a Federally Qualified Health Center operating under the strictest of federal guidelines and regulations. Staffed with two full-time and two part-time physicians, a physician's assistant, and a nurse practitioner, the clinic administers acute and chronic care for adults and routine check-ups and sick care for children.

Whitewater Valley Rehabilitation offers services that will establish, renew, enhance, and maintain well-being in all facets of life through physician referral and personal membership. Therapists provide treatment in physical, occupational, general, and sports therapies.